The Original Meaning of Mother's Day
Mother Power & Mother's Agenda

Once it becomes clear to women that we have qualities that are needed for the human family, the planet and all life on it to survive and thrive the next question becomes, "How do we do this"?

The original Mother's Day proclamation, written by Julia Ward Howe in 1870 was a proposal to bring the women of the world together to bring peace to humanity. It was a call to gather women: it called to women to add their voice to "the voice of the devastated earth", and find the means to bring peace to the world. In her talk, Jean Shinoda Bolen, M.D., brings insight from her work as a Jungian analyst, activist, leading advocate for United Nations 5WCW (5th World Conference on Women), lecturer and author of Urgent Message from Mother, The Millionth Circle, and Artemis: The Indomitable Spirit in Everywoman, Goddess in Everywoman, Gods in Everyman and Like A Tree, translated in over 80 languages.
